Tips on wiring money

Wiring money is just like sending cash. Help protect yourself by knowing how to spot the signs of a scam. Red flags include pressure to send right away, investments that promise high returns, unexpected requests from impersonators posing as well-known organizations, and last-minute changes to established wire instructions. Consider consulting a banker before you wire money.

IMPORTANT ACCOUNT INFORMATION

NEW YORK CITY CUSTOMERS ONLY -- Pursuant to New York City regulations, we request that you contact us at 1-800-TO WELLS (1-800-869-3557) to share your language preference.

Tax Season Reminder: Wells Fargo delivers tax documents - either by mail or online depending on your delivery preference - no later than January 31 or by the IRS deadline of February 15 for brokerage accounts. Depending on the U.S. Postal delivery service, you should expect to receive your tax documents no later than the end of February. You can update your tax document delivery preferences by visiting Wells Fargo Online®.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requires Wells Fargo to report information regarding the amount of interest, dividend or miscellaneous income earned as well as gross proceeds from sales by providing you with various IRS Forms 1099 based on the different types of transactions that occurred in your account during the calendar tax year. For example, if you have interest in the amount of $10 or more during that timeframe, you will receive a Form 1099-INT from Wells Fargo.

For more information, visit Wells Fargo Tax Center at <https://www.wellsfargo.com/tax-center/>.

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to Early Warning Services. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Include with the dispute the following information as available: Full name (First, Middle, Last), Complete address, The account number or other information to identify the account being disputed, Last four digits of your social security number, Date of Birth. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.
- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers): Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.
- If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.
