Does your family have a security phrase?

Scammers can impersonate a loved one in trouble and ask you to send money quickly. A secret family code word or phrase can help to verify that it's really them. Share one with your family and remember to carefully verify all unexpected requests for money.

NEW YORK CITY CUSTOMERS ONLY -- Pursuant to New York City regulations, we request that you contact us at 1-800-TO WELLS (1-800-869-3557) to share your language preference.

This notice re-establishes that Wells Fargo has the right to conduct setoff for overdrawn deposit account balances, where applicable, and in accordance with your governing Deposit Account Agreement. When we exercise this right, we may reduce funds in any account you hold with us for purposes of paying the amount of the debt, either due or past due, that is owed to us as allowed by the laws governing your account. Our right of setoff won't apply if it would invalidate the tax-deferred status of any tax-deferred retirement account (e.g., a SEP or an IRA) you keep with us. To review a copy of your Deposit Account Agreement, including the provisions related to the right of setoff, please visit wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/ or wellsfargo.com/biz/fee-information/.

Important Information You Should Know

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to Early Warning Services. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Include with the dispute the following information as available: Full name (First, Middle, Last), Complete address, The account number or other information to identify the account being disputed, Last four digits of your social security number, Date of Birth. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.
- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers): Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.
- If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.
- To download and print an Account Balance Calculation Worksheet (PDF) to help you balance your checking or savings account, enter www.wellsfargo.com/balancemyaccount in your browser on either your computer or mobile device.
